EAG (RE: the peacock-man photograph):

"That's a pretty high forehead for the Griswolds."

by which I think EAG means that the peacock man is probably not ^{in her opinion} a Griswold.

This note I surfaced as I was making "incorporations" in PN... 85. I made a copy and submitted it to DWP for her file on photographic notes on the family history. The "peacock man" is an ambrotype(?) in a 19th Century frame (the original locket frame) which is embellished with a peacock design, hence the name, peacock man.

- DWP is now submitting to SAP material for incorporation in PN... 85; each of her pages is marked (as I recall): "[DWP notes]."

Visit to Ridge Farm, Waymart, where we visited with Pearl (Curtin) Hudson and Ernest Hudson and their son Darwin & her wife Eleanor. Also present:

- Margaret Rude
- John Rude
- Arny Rude
- Festine (Curtin) Battenberg

Ed was EAG who suggested the McDonald's sitting on 11/15/86, and she invited that SAP & DWP as her guests.

On 05-08-79, SAP, DWP and EAG visited Alice Curtin Williams in Seelyville so that DWP could photograph Alice's photograph (Cyrus portrait) of Henry Banning Curtin & Laura Griswold Curtin. Following that visit, SAP, DWP and EAG went to the McDonald's Restaurant/Diner in Honesdale and had a hamburger.

Seven and a half years later (11-15-1986), DWP, SAP and EAG went to McDonald's Restaurant in Honesdale, following an afternoon
